Instructions for Form 541-A

Trust Accumulation of Charitable Amounts

General Information

In general, California law conforms to the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) as of January 1, 2001. However, there are continuing differences between California and federal law. It should be noted that California does not always conform to the entire provisions of a public law. California has conformed to some of the changes made to the Internal Revenue Code after January 1, 2001, including some provisions of the Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001 (Public Law 107-16), the Victims of Terrorism Tax Relief Act of 2001 (Public Law 107-134), and the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002 (Public Law 107-147). California has not conformed to any of the provisions of the Jobs and Growth Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2003 (Public Law 108-27) and the Military Family Tax Relief Act of 2003 (Public Law 108-121).

You can download, view, and print California tax forms and publications from our Website at www.ftb.ca.gov.

A Purpose

Use Form 541-A to report the charitable information required by California Revenue and Taxation Code (R&TC) Section 18635.

B Who Must File

A trustee must file a calendar year Form 541-A for a trust that claims a charitable or other deduction under IRC Section 642(c) or for a charitable or split-interest trust. However, Form 541-A is not required for any taxable year if the trustee is required by the terms of the governing instrument and applicable local law to currently distribute all of the income of the trust for such year.

A charitable trust is a trust which:

- Is not exempt from taxation under R&TC Section 23701d; and
- Has all the unexpired interests devoted to charitable purposes described in IRC Section 170(c); and

- Had a charitable contribution deduction allowed for all the unexpired interests under the R&TC.

A split-interest trust is a trust which:

- Is not exempt from taxation under R&TC Section 23701d; and
- Has some of the unexpired interests devoted to one or more charitable purposes described in IRC Section 170(c); and
- Has amounts in trust for which a charitable contributions deduction was allowed under the R&TC. Pooled income funds, IRC Section 642(c)(5); charitable remainder annuity trusts, IRC Section 664(d)(1); and remainder unitrusts, IRC Section 664(d)(2); are considered split-interest trusts for which the trustee must file Form 541-A for the taxable year.

Simple trusts which received a letter from the Franchise Tax Board granting exemption from tax under R&TC Section 23701d are considered to be corporations for tax purposes. The trust may be required to file Form 199, California Exempt Organization Annual Information Return.

Nonexempt charitable trusts, described in IRC Section 4947(a)(1), must file Form 199.

C When to File

File Form 541-A on or before April 15, 2004. However, if you need additional time to file, California grants an automatic six-month extension. A request form is not required to obtain this extension.

D Where to File

Mail Form 541-A to:

FRANCHISE TAX BOARD
PO BOX 942840
SACRAMENTO CA 94240-0002

Specific Instructions

Private Mailbox (PMB) Number

If the trust leases a private mailbox from a business rather than a PO box from the United States Postal Service, include the box number in the field labeled "PMB no." in the address area.

Part II and Part III

Attach a statement describing in detail the purpose for which charitable disbursements were made from income set aside in prior taxable years and amounts which were paid out of principal for charitable purposes. Examples of appropriate descriptions are: payments for nursing service, laboratory construction, fellowships, or assistance to indigent families (not simply charitable, educational, religious, or scientific).

Part IV

If the balance sheet does not agree with the books of account, all differences must be reconciled in an attached statement.
